

Bella figura: Italian elegance from Ritratti Beachwear

November 4, 2011 by Tiki Girl

Ritratti Beachwear is all about sophistication and dynamism, and is part of the famous and glamorous Italian Rittratti brand of intimates including luxury lingerie. Each collection of swimwear tells a story, taking the wearer on a tour of femininity and elegance. The woman who chooses Rittratti is a woman who cares about fashion without being a victim of it, prefers whispered rather than shouted words, recognizes the importance of details as well as the value of the 'well made' and who enjoys playing with the significance and communication capability of her own body. No wonder you find it difficult to wear something different once you've tried a Rittratti swimsuit.

This season's looks are romantic, elegant and sophisticated.
